

A Town Council Workshop was conducted on March 17, 2014 at 6:10 p.m. at the Wright Town Hall in Wright, Wyoming. The following were present for the workshop: Councilman Glenn Holt (6:49 p.m.), Councilman Danny Preston, Councilwoman Lori Gilbertson, Councilman Nelson Litaba and Mayor Albin. Also present were Clerk/Treasurer Chrissy Herrera, Public Works Operations Manager Rick Hale, and Building Official Lyle Murdock and Economic Development Coordinator Brandi Harlow.

DISCUSSION: The Wright Town Council discussed the dates for the new Southern Campbell County Agricultural Complex pens. The pens should be done by the end of April, 2014. The Town will notify the Riding and Roping Club members when the new pens are done so they can plan to move accordingly. People will be given 30 days to move, from the time the new pens are available. Mayor Albin is planning on meeting with the elected Riding and Roping officers to let them know about the moving dates and to answer any questions. The town is still planning on cleaning up the site as soon as the move is effective.

The Council also discussed future planning in Wright and would like to visit with the small communities in North Dakota that were affected by the “boom” and talk about what they might have done differently and what worked well, etc. Council is considering making a trip in April. The last item discussed was the job description for the manager of the new Southern Campbell County Agricultural Complex. Council considered hiring one person to run the facility and another person to help when needed. The second person would be hired under the Public Works Department. The scheduling and billing for the facility would be done by the Town Hall staff. It was decided that Brandi Harlow, Rick Hale, Mayor Albin and Councilman Preston would meet on Thursday, March 20, 2014 to discuss the job description in greater detail.
